It's pretty hilarious that this is the exact pdf with binding and a cover. This was published in Germany back in the 1800s, and the copyright has long since expired. Fortunately, it is a perfectly readable version and is bound and printed on sturdy paper. It would cost about this much to bind it, and saves me the work. Certainly not a Henle, or other modern edition, but it will do. I wasn't expecting too much, but was hoping the print would be a little larger, the notes are a bit cramped - the notes in this sonata are as dense as I've ever seen.
