year old to keep his mind sharp over the summer. He is going into 2nd grade, but is a little delayed in reading, writing, and math due to processing and retrieval issues, so my recommended age would be 5-8 depending on the child. I'm not totally sure why I chose this out of the many, many beginner puzzle books, but I'm really glad I did! This is why....-It is the perfect difficulty for my son, beginning with simple puzzles and advancing subtly to more challenging ones as the book progresses. Nothing is too daunting however, and in time he should be able to complete them all. Simple concepts and themes that are kid friendly should both entice him and build his confidence. It offers a nice balance of words that children already know, while also introducing new words.-There are number searches!! I have never seen these, but they are brilliant! The child has to find the numbers just as they would a word amongst a grid of numbers. This is absolutely perfect for us, since number reversals and sequencing is something that my son struggles with. It begins with puzzles with smaller numbers, 3-4 characters, and build to numbers with 6-7 characters.-The crossword puzzles are also well conceived, and are simple but a great introduction to this type of puzzle. No clues, just word placement. Again, perfect for stretching and supporting beginning reading skills.Overall, I think this book is the perfect fit for children with beginning reading and math skills, and for those who may need support in these areas. Although my son is not diagnosed with dyslexia, I believe this book would be great for those who were. It should offer enough of a challenge without being frustrating or a turn off.

By Jennifer P.If you skip the dimensions like I did than I will warn you here. This book is small (smaller than the size of a 5 x 7 frame just to give you a reference). I have young kids (ages 7,5,4,3) and this gets lost very easily. I would look for a bigger book if you are buying for little ones.

By Nancy CollierI purchased this book for my 1st grader to keep her occupied on a road trip of about 10 hours. She loved it among the other distractions and sleep she got. Good choice for the younger set.

Great word searches for kids! Young puzzle solvers will love searching up, down, across and diagonally to find tons of hidden words. Puzzles are perfect for kids ages 5-9 and include word search, number search and word crossword fill-ins for kids to enjoy. Each word puzzle has a unique theme: "A Day at the Beach" "Solar System" "State Capitals" and many more! These puzzles are designed to be fun and exciting, while also building self-confidence and improve reading skills.
