Christopher T. Magician : Beyond Look, Don't See: Furthering the Art of Children's Magic before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Beyond Look, Don't See: Furthering the Art of Children's Magic:

From his stellar YouTube series, to his DVD (the best children's magic DVD I have ever bought), to this, Beyond Look Don't See, he is without an equal in the children's magic world (and I do not say that lightly). Further, the sheer volume of content he provides in this book is mind blowing. I could easily imagine him having split it in to two editions and charging the same for each one as he charges for this single tome of performance knowledge (and I still would have given both five stars), but he didn't. After you read this book you will forget more about children's magic than most performers will ever even learn. I simply cannot praise this title more. If you are a children's magician (or even another form of children's performer, to be honest), you absolutely owe it to yourself and your future audiences to own this book now. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. David Ginn, David Kaye - and now Christopher! By MormonYoYoMan Inspired by and builds on David Ginn -- and there's no higher complement. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Lisa Laird Every children's entertainer should read this book!

You are cordially invited beyond the red velvet rope for an up-close and personal tour through the art of children's magic as Christopher T. Magician describes in detail his 25 favorite techniques for creating kid show hilarity. Along the way you'll discover 25 fully scripted routines direct from his decade long stint as a sought-after children's magician in and around New York City. To demonstrate the versatility of each technique on the list, he also provides 144 "Take It And Run With It" ideas - ideas you can take, run with, and make your own. Don't worry. You won't find "Look, Don't See" and "Magician-In-Trouble" in these pages! The goal is to take the art of children's magic further. So join us, won't you, as we go BEYOND LOOK, DON'T SEE.
