I was just expecting more practical advice on decorating and recipes.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Perfectly CHARMING!By *Victoria*If you love this show, you will love this book.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. I absolutely loved this bookBy JTI absolutely loved this book. It was a very interesting read with lots of wisdom, humor and tips on being truly southern. It also gave insight to the fascinating life of Mrs. Patricia Altschul. I would highly recommend this book.

Patricia Altschul, the surprise breakout star of Bravos hit reality show Southern Charm, introduces an essential lifestyle guide as refreshing and fun as a gin martini. Patricia on #SouthernCharm, like lookin in the damn mirror. Cheers queen. Lady Gaga Fan-favorite Bravolebrity Patricia Altschul from the primetime show Southern Charm finally brings fans her eagerly anticipated opus on etiquette and living a glamorous Southern lifestyle. Patricia provides advice on every situation, from hosting a memorable cocktail party, to decoding the dress code for any event, to handling a drunken boor at the dinner table, to delivering the perfectly phrased insult like her now iconic shameless strumpet. The Art of Southern Charm takes readers inside the world of Charlestons most captivating grande dame, who (with Michael the Butler) offers a bluebloods blueprint for curating and celebrating life at its best.

"Patricia on #SouthernCharm, like lookin' in the damn mirror. Cheers queen." ---Lady Gaga
About the Author Patricia Altschul has been featured in publications including Vogue, Town Country, Architectural Digest, People; and she is the surprise break-out star of the Bravo hit reality series, Southern Charm. Wise, cultivated, elegant, and funny, Patricia is a consummate hostess and a lifestyle icon whose unique combination of class and sass has endeared her to fans of all ages. Patricia has earned her status as a preeminent tastemaker. She received her Masters Degree from George Washington University, where she lectured on Art History. She was a highly-successful art advisor who also amassed her own art collection and has served on the board of the New York Historical Society and other institutions. In addition to being an academic and a philanthropist, she has done a life-long tour-of-duty at the top of the social ladder in Washington, D.C., Oyster Bay, and on Manhattans storied Fifth Avenue, where she observed--and ultimately dictated--the modern-day rules of civility. Patricia, who really puts the social in social networking, has a glorious brain, the best legs, a killer sense of humor, and expertly curates every aspect of her life. Deborah Davis is the author of eight books, including Strapless: John Singer Sargent and the Fall of Madame X, Party of the Century: The Fabulous Story of Truman Capote and His Black and White Ball, Gilded: How Newport Became the Richest Resort in America, The Oprah Winfrey Show: Reflections on an American Legacy, Guest of Honor: Booker T. Washington, Theodore Roosevelt, and the White House Dinner that Shocked a Nation, which won the prestigious Phillis Wheatley Award for best work of History in 2013, and was nominated for an NAACP Image Award, Fabritius and the Goldfinch, which named one of the Best Books of 2014, and The Trip: Andy Warhol's Plastic-Fantastic Cross-Country Adventure.
