P. Nalle Laanela, Stacey Sacks : The Clown Manifesto before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Clown Manifesto:

Part clown manual, part storytelling and part rant, The Clown Manifesto covers the experiences, philosophies and methods of the clown performer/director/teacher Nalleslavski (pseudonym of author P. Nalle Laanela). In this book, he reveals the insights he has gathered over nearly 20 years of performance and international research in the realm of physical comedy. Full of practical tools and useful advice.

About the Author P. Nalle Laanela founded Clowns Without Borders (Sweden) in 1996, starting his lifetime research into the lowest common denominator of laughter. His passion for pedagogy led him to work at the Stockholm Academy of Dance and Circus and at the Stockholm Academy of Dramatic Arts where he was clown professor for a Masters programme entitled A Year of Physical Comedy. Professionally, Nalle works as a performer and show director is focused through his company Circus Arts and its internationally touring productions Moulin Noir and The Burnt Out Punks. Stacey Sacks is an actor/writer/director/clown born in Zimbabwe but currently living in Stockholm. She has been performing professionally since 1996 in theatre and film, and completed her Masters entitled A Year of Physical Comedy at STDH with Nalle as her Clown Professor. She currently works on touring productions with Clowns Without Borders and also tours her clownish one woman show about African Dictatorship, I Shit Diamonds, to theatre festivals all over Europe.
