Bryan Kish : The Devil's Barrens before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Devil's Barrens:

Every state... every town... has the road they shouldn't drive down at 3 in the morning, or that last house on the left no one dares go in. But college student Halston Reed cannot resist the lure of The Devil's Barrens, into which he leads his friends in search of the Jersey Devil.
