Stars Anne Heche as the beautiful, headstrong Raina who awaits her fianc's return from battlebut instead meets a soldier who seeks asylum in her bedroom. Candida: Shaw's warm and witty play challenged conventional wisdom about relationships between the sexes, as a beautiful wife must choose between the two men who love her. The Devil's Disciple: A young hero who disdains heroism makes the ultimate sacrifice for honor and country during the American Revolution, starring Richard Dreyfuss. Major Barbara: Featuring Kate Burton, this sparkling comedy traverses family relations, religion, ethics and politicsas only Shaw, the master dramatist, can! The Doctor's Dilemma: A well-respected physician is forced to choose whom he shall save: a bumbling friend or the ne'er-do-well husband of the woman he loves. Misalliance: A self-made millionaire and his family invite their future in-law for a visit to their estate.
