Julian Pottage, Marc Smith : The Golden Rules of Competitive Auctions (MASTER BRIDGE) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Golden Rules of Competitive Auctions (MASTER BRIDGE):

Competition brings many benefits - or so all the politicians say. Bridge players certainly subscribe to the theory. These days somewhere between two-thirds and three-quarters of all auctions see both sides entering the fray. Having a basic knowledge of how to get into or stay in the bidding is therefore a key attribute for success at the bridge table. You will often hear rules quoted such as 'do not double them into the game' or 'leave the five level to the enemy'. This book covers all the rules likely to help you and, as usual in this series, you will find plenty of examples both for and against each one.

About the Author Marc Smith has a special interest in bidding, having written many articles on the subject. He lives in Southampton. Both he and Julian Pottage write regular columns in the bridge press and both are bridge Grand Masters. Julian Pottage is the author or co-author of 24 bridge books. He is an outstanding bridge teacher and competes at national and international level. He lives in Wales.
