Maybe the greatest ensemble of all time, Spike Milligan, Harry Secombe and of course Peter Sellers. A genius collaboration and their work is unsurpassable. No one can touch it. Not Monty Python, The Comic Strip or The Young Ones. No one. It will never get better than this and everyone involved knew it. That's why they loved doing it so much. Beautiful. How fortunate we are. Audio quality for this series is superb. As good as it gets. This is a 2 CD set, 2 shows per disc, broadcast in 1954, 55, 56 and 57. All are complete including musical performances by Max Geldray and Ray Ellington. As much as I love the Goons it is a hassle and expensive to collect all the CDs. I would much rather have the entire series on a few MP3 DVDs, if the same audio quality is maintained. There is no other British comedy more timeless than this. No one else will ever have the talent, energy or drive to make something like The Goon Show happen ever again. And so what made it so special? Love, in every sense of the word.

From 1952 to 1960 the Goons ruled the airwaves, the most celebrated and influential clowns in the history of radio.

This latest release features four more episodes of classic Goonery, starring the inimitable Harry Secombe, Peter Sellers and Spike Milligan.
