He likes it better than his tables and I am very happy about, I did not had a tabled either, just coloring books etc, but it was a different time when I was his age. Kids are kids and they enjoy to have company and someone to spend time with them. They just love to learn0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful and detailed book!By Mickey was hereWonderful book and full of detail! Bought this for my mom who has Alzheimer's and we wanted to try to give her things to help focus her mind and also calm her down at times too. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. It was a fun exercise for my 8 year old niece. By Max I was hoping the numbers would be a bit larger. The gift was for a visually impaired family member, she was not able to connect the pictures for this reason. It was a fun exercise for my 8 year old niece.

Coloring and puzzle enthusiasts will love this treasury of more than 40 connect-the-dots challenges. Intricate puzzles to solve and color depict a hummingbird poised above a flower, a mother raccoon with her baby, a spider monkey, and other animals as well as fanciful images of a tow truck, ice skaters, a windmill, an old-fashioned phonograph, and more.
