Strange but True Records!By Mike O'ConnorTHE MAMMOTH BOOK OF WEIRD RECORDS is proof positive that people will do anything - anything! - to get in the record book. Jim Theobald's 550-page book is filled with imaginative, silly, stupid and halfway-serious records set by people around the world.A 2015 Running Press release, Theobald's book divides its material into chapters on Technology and Games, Fashion Victims, Feats of Strength, Mind Games, That's Entertainment, Unwanted Records, Acquired Tastes, etc. Here are samples from the book: Most Children Fathered; Largest Race Featuring Competitors in Kilts; Fastest Time to Carve a Face into a Pumpkin; Most Santas Surfing Simultaneously; Most Pigeon Food Eaten by a Human; Longest Time Wearing Same Shoes; Most Chainsaw Juggles; Longest Basketball Dribble; Largest Collection of Bagpipes; Longest Movie Title; First Person to Jump the Great Wall of China on a Skateboard; Most Southerly Golf Course; Oldest Surviving McDonald's; Biggest Boobs; Shortest Song Recorded; Longest Time Hula Hopping Under Water; etc., etc. THE MAMMOTH BOOK OF WEIRD RECORDS makes for fun reading. It's an entertaining, informative time-waster of a book. Recommended. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Highly Entertaining. Different than Ripley or Guinness that's for sure. By Johnny If you are fan of obscure Don Dohler films then you'll probably enjoy this, too.

In this one-of-a-kind collection, Geoff Tibballs brings together hundreds of unsung heroes who go to bizarre lengths to break world records in the weirdest of categories. They devote hours of intense training to spitting dung, eating cockroaches, sniffing feet, or tossing tuna in the hope of one day being recognized as the best!

About the Author Geoff Tibballs is the author of the bestselling "Mammoth Book of Jokes" and "The Mammoth Book of Dirty Jokes" along with many other titles.
