It's over 320 pages of big hits from the decade that works out to less than $0.35 per song. Even if you like only a handful of the 59 songs, buying the collection offers a significantly lower price point than buying them individually online where the average price is about $5/per song. By DB The music is written in a way that is easy to play. Songs are as listed and it's nice that there are many of the popular '80's songs in this book. It lays pretty flat while playing, which is nice because some books like to close on you and need to be propped open. Very happy with it!
