Sutton "To play outstanding bridge, you need the insouciance of a jewel thief, a CPA's head for numbers, and a psychic's talent for divination. Perhaps you have to be born with those personal characteristics, but this handsome calendar will give you a better grasp of the game." Bridge presents fifty-three extraordinary hands, with remarks by one of the world's best bridge writers. Alan Truscott has recorded, influenced, and excelled in the world of bridge for half a century; he has been bridge editor for The New York Times since 1964. Here he brings profound understanding and casually lucid prose to his analyses of the hands. Equally interesting are his speculations about alternative ways that the games could have gone. "This would make an ideal gift for a bridge-playing friend or loved one." --Brent Manley, ACBL Bridge Bulletin "112 page, spiral-bound weekly engagement calendar with 53 world-class hands of bridge, and clear plastic covers. Size: 6 5/8 by 8". Calendar features 53 weekly grids and full-page 2006 and 2007 yearly grids. Includes international holidays and a page for notes. ISBN 0-7649-2999-2.
